from Kaveramma

SUBJECT.

For a succession Certificate under Section 17 of Act VII of 1889 in respect of Rs 1000 due to the estate of her late husband P. Subba Rao (deceased) from the Bombay Standard Life Insurance Company

The petitioner Kaveramma has already been granted a succession Certificate (which is attached to the petition) by the District Judge of Shimoga in respect of the Estate of her deceased husband P. Subba Rao, including the amount due from the Bombay Standard Life Insurance Company. It is evident from this that the necessary enquiry prescribed by the Act (Sec 7) has been held by that Court, and that the petitioner was found to be a fit person to collect the debts of her deceased husband.

2. It seems therefore unnecessary for us to hold another inquiry regarding the petitioner's title to obtain a Certificate from the Amildar the Resident, which is necessary for the collection of the said amount, as the Mysore Certificate has no force in British India.

3 In these circumstances the Certificate applied for may, on the strength of the Mysore Certificate, be granted on the petitioner furnishing to the Resident a security (vide Sec. 9 of Act 7 of 1889) your humble petitioner begs to stated, that his late eldest brother, P Subba Rao late judicial Head Assistant Shimoga District had insured his life for Rs 1000/- and odd, in the Standard life Insurance company Bombay and also for a similar amount in the Mysore State Life Insurance Company. He died of plague at Shimoga. He leaves behind, an adopted Son, a minor and his wife. The boy, who was an orphan, even before adoption is quite helpless now.

His step mother, the widow of late Mr P Subba Rao, with the idea of cheating the poor and helpless boy applied for a heirship certificate probably in the District court at Shimoga, stating that the deceased left no other survivors, but herself and got the Bonnes, without the knowledge of either her adopted son, or your humble petitioner, and squandered it in some distant country, not even caring to feed and clothe her son.

When

When your humble petitioner came to know this, he took the precaution, to write to the Standard life Insurance company Bombay, on behalf of the minor boy, not to disburse the Bonnus, till the boy attains his majority. The company's agent at Shimoga states, that the Bonnus, will be paid to any body who produces an heir-ship certificate from the Court of Honorable British Resident at Mysore.

your humble petitioner prays, that the Honorable court, may issue a notice to the minor boy, P. S. Gopala Rao c/o B.V. Rama Iyengar Esqr B.A. Forest-Ranger Lakkavalli kadur District, before an heir-ship certificate is granted to the deceased's widow. To go to a Civil court to establish his claims the poor boy is young and helpless.

In conclusion your humble petitioner prays that the Honorable court may guard the interest of the dowell orphan and minor Son of the deceased Mr P. Subba Rao.

For which act of kindness your petitioner shall ever feel grateful.

He begs to remain.
